

HOME LOVE NETWORK TO LAUNCH FIRST SERIES ON FACEBOOK WATCH

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28, 2017--Home Love Network, a media company focused on creating premium episodic digital content, has announced the launch of its first original series, Old Sweet Home, debuting on Facebook Watch.

Old Sweet Home is hosted by former HGTV talent, Andy and Candis Meredith. In the series, viewers watch Andy and Candis live their dream of saving as many old homes as they can.

Old Sweet Home is just one of 17 original digital series launching by Home Love Network, covering a broad range of topics that include home renovation, interior design, art, food and lifestyle with family-friendly content appealing to all ages and demographics.

"With a goal of building an engaged community of passionate people in the home space, we are optimistic about the possibilities on Facebook Watch," says Home Love Network CEO Nykelle Schlofman. "Not many platforms allow real-time interaction and engagement on premium episodic content, and we are excited to watch closely to see how viewers engage with Old Sweet Home."

Old Sweet Home Episode 1 is currently available on Facebook, with new episodes launching every Tuesday. Viewers can follow Old Sweet Home for first access to new episodes in their watchlist.
